Glenn Noland is a 1970 graduate of Rutgers University and served in the United States Army for two years. He started his financial services career in East Orange, New Jersey in 1972.

In 1976, Glenn moved to New York and started the Westchester Financial Group and Westchester Pension Consultants with offices in Tarrytown, New York and New York City. These firms offered planning and financial advice to executives and business owners.

In 1990, Glenn moved to Boston, joined New England Financial and formed Strategic Financial Partners, a multifaceted financial services organization. In 2010, Glenn merged the talents of his firm with Baystate Financial Services.

Glenn is active in his industry, having served on several local and national boards. He is a member of the Board of Overseers of Rutgers University and is current President of Nashawtuc Country Club.
